Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the grant of compassionate gratuity to the family of the late Mr. C. Chowdaiya, First Grade Superintendent, General and Revenue Secretariat, calculated on the basis of the pay drawn by him on the 1st July 1936 for the number of years of service rendered by him.

Para 18 of Note

The late Mr. C. Chowdaiya has put in a service of 29 years and according to rules governing the grant of compassionate gratuity, his family is entitled to a gratuity of Rs 2,080-8-0.

P

In her petition dated the 9th April 1937, the widow of Mr. Chowdaiya, prays that in view of the large family and her poor financial circumstances, her case for compassionate gratuity may be treated as a special one as in the case of the late Messrs. T. C. Palaniswamy and M. Krishna Rao. In the two cases referred to, the compassionate gratuity was calculated on the last pay drawn by them at the time of death.

K+S

Both the Financial Secretary and the Chief Secretary have recommended that a compassionate gratuity of Rs 3,915/- (calculated on the pay drawn by the official on 1st July 1936) may be paid to the family as a special case and that this case should not be quoted as a precedent for others.

Paras 24+25 of note

Sir,

I regret to inform you that my husband Mr. C. Chowdiah, B.A., First Class Superintendent, General and Revenue Secretariat, on leave, prior to retirement, died in the Victoria Hospital on the 18th March 1937 at about 12 noon as per death certificate submitted.

I have six children as detailed below to maintain of whom five are daughters who are unmarried. My late husband has not left any property either moveable or immoveable worth mentioning other than the life Insurance amount which is very small. I have got to marry all my daughters eldest of whom is 13 years and also to educate educate my son and other children. All this is a burden on me too heavy to be borne.

I therefore pray that my hard and destitute case may kindly be taken into consideration by the benign Government and my case may kindly be treated as a special one in the same manner as those of Messrs. M. Krishna Rao and T. C. Palwia-Samy. My husband died so suddenly while in harness and served the Government most-honourably and faithfully. The sudden death of my husband has left me and my children very helpless and destitute.

Taking all these facts into Consideration, I pray that the benign Government may kindly treat my case as a special one just as in the case of the two gentlemen referred to above and sanction me family calculated on the last pay he drew. If the Government should show this much of mercy to the bereaved and destitute family myself and my children

Children would just be able to maintain ourselves.

For which act of kindness myself and my poor Children will all be ever grateful.

I beg to remain,
